

Hey Hey Girl

Words and Music: Sebastian Sylla

You walked across the fields of soldiers and sang your song of hidden love
You crossed the lines of fighting nations
And cried the tears that were never enough

Hey hey girl you found this pearl
That hides inside the heart
Hey hey boy you know this joy
That breaks the shells apart

You swam the seas of shivering waves
And kissed the maids alive again
You climbed the hills of burning shadows
And filled the cups with a taste of Zen

Hey...

Sweet and sour
Every minute every hour
Every day it wants to flower
