

Say Hello

Words and Music: Sebastian Sylla

You may have heard of seven wonders but you know it's more
I'd guess at least there are eight billion but it ain't for sure
I saw a new born baby
A miracle to me
Tomorrow there is maybe
Much more wonders to see

Say Hello hello to the things you know
Hello hello to the world
Say hello hello to your friend and foe
Say hello to whatever seems absurd

You may have seen a thousand places on your tablet screen
I'd guess there is much more to learn from what we have not seen
I did not see Jehovah
Nor Buddha or a king
"Please turn the pages over"
Was written at the rim

Hey hey hey hello hello a heya hey hey hey hello
